

darwin

professional underwriters inc.

News

For Immediate Release

Contact: Drake Manning
860.507.1039

Darwin Professional Underwriters Expands E&O Underwriting Staff with Appointment of Attorney/Underwriter

FARMINGTON, CT, November 25, 2003 — Darwin Professional Underwriters, Inc. (Darwin) today announced the recent appointment of Annamarie Haught, J.D. as assistant vice president. In this capacity, Annamarie will lead Darwin's lawyers professional liability (LPL) product development efforts and underwriting practice.

Most recently, Annamarie was a senior claims attorney with Chubb Specialty Insurance in Simsbury, Connecticut. She has more than 17 years experience in the legal and insurance segments, with ten years in private practice as a commercial litigator and insurance defense attorney.

"Annamarie brings exceptional talent and a diverse legal and insurance background to the Darwin underwriting team," said Mark Rosen, chief legal officer of Darwin. "The combination of her private practice experience, claims and litigation management, and professional liability underwriting capabilities provides our clients with a superior level of understanding and appreciation of their risks."

Darwin Professional Underwriters, Inc. is an underwriting subsidiary of Alleghany Insurance Holdings LLC. Coverage may be issued by Platte River Insurance Company, Capitol Indemnity Corporation, or Capitol Specialty Insurance Corporation. Each has earned an A.M. Best Company rating of A+ (Superior). Darwin underwrites D&O liability and professional liability insurance for public and private companies, health care risks, and a broad range of professional classes. For more information about Darwin, visit www.darwinpro.com, email info@darwinpro.com, or call 860-507-1000.

###